How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. The file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences. We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to user's needs. Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us. You can choose to accept or decline cookies however this may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website. Third Party Cookies are not set directly by the school, but by third-party providers e.g. Google for analytical purposes. One such cookie tracks number of visits by a unique user and the other tracks where the user came from (e.g. search engine or other link) and where in the world the user is located when accessing the site. In addition to Google's analytical cookies, Third Party Cookies may be set by providers whose services or functionality is embedded in the school website. Such providers include, but may not be limited to Twitter, YouTube, FaceBook and Joomla.

Links to other websites.

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Controlling your personal information

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so. You may request details of personal information which we hold about you under the Data Protection Act 1998. A small fee will be payable. If you would like a copy of the information held on you please write to:

Chelsea Community Hospital School
Chelsea and Westminster Hospital
369 Fulham Road
London
SW10 9NH

If you believe that any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, please write to or email us as soon as possible, at the above address. We will promptly correct any information found to be incorrect.

Freedom of Information

The school will comply with the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, and any subsequent legislation, to ensure all information held by the school is treated in a manner that is fair and lawful. Request for any documents within the scheme which are not available on the school website, should be directed to the school by telephone, email or letter. Contact details are as above. To help process requests quickly, any correspondence should be clearly marked: "PUBLICATION SCHEME REQUEST."
